LHV World Equities Fund

ISIN: EE3600092417

The Fund is managed by AS LHV Varahaldus (LHV Asset Management) which belongs to AS LHV Group consolidation group.

Objectives and investment policy

The objective of the Fund's activities is the growth of the investments made by the unit-holders. In order to do that, the fund invests up to 100% of its assets into equities and equity funds across the world. For the purposes of hedging financial risks, the fund also invests into derivative instruments (futures, forwards).

The management company issues and redeems units on every banking day. Transaction orders which are received by 15:00 (Tallinn time), are deemed to have been received on the same banking day and transaction orders which are received after 15:00 (Tallinn time), are deemed to have been received on the next banking day. Upon exiting from the investment, the money is transferred to the investor within 3 banking days (T+3).

The asset allocation of the fund is not tied to a certain benchmark. It is up to the fund manager to decide in which region and in which equities he wants to be invested in or where he sees growth potential. As a result of that, the geographical allocation may vary quite considerably over time.

Investment decisions are not made based on any single criterion (e.g. whether an equity is considered a growth or a dividend stock) but rather on the basis of various different factors (e.g. revenue and profit growth, profit margin, sustainability of the business model, management expertise, the stock price, the macroeconomic situation, etc.)

Dividends received from the equities and interests received from deposits are reinvested.

Portfolio transaction costs are small and their impact on the return of the fund is not material.

Recommendation: LHV World Equities Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 3 years.
